Nourish into new Life and Vigor,
And cause the Bloom of Health
To dance once more upon their withered Cheeks.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,
Steals upon its victims unawares, and before they are aware of its attack, plants itself firmly in the system, and through neglect or inattention becomes seated, and defies all ordinary or temporary treatment to relinquish its merciless grasp.

DO YOU KNOW THE CAUSE OF
The wasted form—the hollow cheek?
The withered face—the shallow complexion
The feeble voice—the sunken, glassy eye?
The emaciated form—the trembling frame?
The treacherous pimple—the torturing sore?
The repulsive eruption—the inflamed eye?
The pimpled face—the rough coloured skin?
and debilitating ailments of the present age?
The answer is simple, and covers the whole ground in all its phases, viz: the
FANGS OF DISEASE

The

The tubercules of Scrofula that sometimes flourish and stud the inner coating of the abdomen, like kernels of corn, are withered, dissolved and eradicated and the diseased parts nourished into life. STABBED BY A BROTHER.

The quiet and complicity of the Governor in the Railroad swindles of this State, has been so apparent that "he who runs may read" it. Even Judge Rodman, without intending it, stabbed the Governor under the fifth rib, in his University Railroad opinion.

In this case of the University Railroad, Judge Rodman says, (see Phillips' Reports, page 423:) "The act (chartering the University Railroad Company,) is merely ministerial in its nature. But it seems to me that the time for its performance is left discretionary. It will be observed that the language of section 5, of the act of 30th January, 1869, is not imperative. It says, 'to secure the completion of said Road, coupon bonds of the State are hereby authorized to be issued.' If we give to this word its proper weight, it can hardly be supposed that the Legislature intended to make it imperative on the Governor and Treasurer to issue, in one mass, bonds to the amount of $300,000, immediately on the passage of the act, and without any regard to the price at which they could be sold. It could never have been intended that the State should be thus made the victim of the Brokers of Wall street, without help from any quarter.

The language was, therefore, permissive only, and the intention was, that the Governor should put these bonds on the market only as funds might be needed for the work on the Road, and only when, in his opinion, the price offered was a reasonable one. That discretion he has exercised by refusing to deliver them at this time."

So argues Judge Rodman in justification of the opinion he gave, that Governor Holden and the Treasurer were not compelled by the Act of Assembly to issue the bonds to the University Railroad Company, but that the act left the issue discretionary with him, he to be guided in the exercise of this "ministerial" duty, by the price of the bonds and the necessity of the work.

Now apply this rule to the action of the Governor in the issue of other bonds to other Companies, and the force of the blow given to the Governor by his brother, the Judge, will be seen and appreciated, for the same discretionary powers are given in all, and the same prudential reasons ought to have governed in all.

But where was the Governor's discretion when he issued, in bulk, or allowed the Treasurer to issue, 7,000 bonds to the "Ring," when he knew it would be years before that amount could be used and honestly expended in the construction of the Road?

How will His Excellency answer this opinion of Judge Rodman, that his discretion forbade his issuing, "in one mass," $300,000 in bonds to the University Railroad Company, when his "discretion" did not forbid his issuing $7,000,000 in bonds to the "Ring?"

What a prudent and discreet Governor we have, to be sure!

HENDERSON BURNT.

Eighty thousand ignorant men, bound by black oaths to protect and defend each other, led by five hundred squatters and deserters from the Federal army, having control of a government, with nothing in it to tax or be taxed, cannot be made to turn loose their hold on it without making themselves felt. Pool, Abbott, Littlefield and Holden, have not only threatened us with troops, but have actually put them upon the people of Wake, Jones and Alamance.

This was no work of the Governor; he is timid, yea, cowardly, and we doubt if he ever shot a squirrel in his life. He is afraid of guns or men in arms, as the Georgia regiment can testify. He and Littlefield failed to induce the President to send troops to Alamance. It was Canby and not the President, who quartered troops upon the people of Alamance.

The Leaguers of Henderson are somewhat noted for crime. Bob Young, the Blalock murderer, was a Henderson Leaguer. It would seem, from the late burning, that there are still Bob Youngs left in that unfortunate town.

The whole policy of the Leagues will be to intimidate, by threats, the men of property, by burning and shooting. Two prominent League negroes were heard to say that Utley and Holleman, when in the custody of the Sheriff, ought to be shot.

They have stuck posters on the trees at Holly Springs, threatening to burn every house, mill and barn in that vicinity.—They have fired Mr. Branch's barn, calling to their aid the "god of turpentine." They sat in ambush and fired on him when he went out to extinguished the flames.

A negro leaguer in that neighborhood was whipped; he applied to the President of the League, Gov. Holden, who consulted with Judge Watts, and armed men were sent to make arrests. Mr. Branch's barn is fired, Mr. Branch shot at, but no troops or officers are sent out, because Mr. Branch does not belong to the League.

The President has failed to gratify Littlefield, Abbott, Holden and Pool, in sending troops to overawe the people at the polls. We heard a Republican declare, and repeat it with emphasis, that enough Conservatives could be intimidated and kept from the polls to give the State to the Republicans.

There are no troops to move from county to county during election week, and thus intimidate the voters, and the means of intimidation to be substituted are, burning and shooting, and they have been started in Wake, Granville and Harnett already.

Arson and assassination were the great weapons used by the French Republicans for carrying their elections; they boasted that a little timely letting of blood saved the elections and prevented the shedding of fields of blood.

The French Republicans were much more enlightened than the Southern Republicans. What cares a carpet bagger for a little burning or assassination, so he can hold his office and place!

Who were the capet baggers that burnt and robbed Messrs. Howel and Maynor not ten miles from this city?

Mr. Ben Howell's house was burnt, and he and his wife fired on by the Federals, as they fled from their burning roof.

Edward Maynor and his wife, Dalila, are old people, living ten miles west of Raleigh; they raised a family of twenty-one children. In 1865, the Federals robbed their house and took from these old people their bread and their meat. They are still alive and are, no doubt taxed to-day, to pay the salaries of some carpet bag scamp who robbed them and fired on Mrs. Howell. Conservatives may prepare themselves to meet the "god of turpentine," and the poiniard of the assassin, for it seems they are to be fully inaugurated.

TOWNSHIP MEETING.

At a meeting of the citizens of Newlight Township, held at William Laws' store on Friday, the 6th day of May, 1870, William Laws was called to the chair and John T. Garner, requested to act as Secretary.

A Committee was appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, who reported the following:

Resolved, 1st. That this meeting shall nominate candidates for the various offices of this Township and appoint delegates to a county Convention, to be hereafter held at Raleigh.

Resolved, 2nd. That we condemn in the strongest terms the course of the past Legislature in their prodigal waste of the public money, and their protection of men who were notorious plunderers of the public treasury.

Resolved, 3rd. That we are opposed to carpet baggers ruling our State, believing that we have men, native born, who understand the wants and wishes of our people and have the honesty and integrity to manage our affairs in the interest of the people and honor of the State.

Resolved, 4th. That we fully endorse the address issued by the Conservative members of the Legislature as sensible, timely and proper.

Resolved, 5th. That we will support the nominees of the County Convention to assemble in Raleigh for the nomination of members to the Legislature and other county officers, also the nominee of the District Convention for a member of Congress.

Resolved, 6th, That there shall be no division among us, therefore, we will support the nominees of this meeting for Township officers.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The following nominations for Township officers were then made and endorsed by the meeting:

For Magistrates—William Laws and John H. Robertson.

For Clerk—William J Ward.

For Constable—Henry C. Ray.

For School Committee—George H. Penington, Henry Wilson and George W. Lowery.

On motion, the chair was requested to appoint delegates to the county convention to be held at some future day.

The chair appointed the following delegates to attend said convention: James A. Ray, Allen Bailey, John T. Garner, Jesse Davis, Charles M Davis, John Keath, Simeon Cooly, John H. Robertson, F. J. Bailey, J. D. Warren, John Joyner, Harry Ray, Louis Wilson, J. H. Keath, Jesse Jones, Major Shearring, William Perry, Sr., Willis Smith, Richard Griffin, W. S. Ray, David Beck, Daniel Wallis, Bryant Keath, Hinton Emory, William J. Ward, Buck Laws, col. Henry Tanner, col., Nat Byrd, col., and Mingo Hockady, col.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be furnished for publication in the Raleigh SENTINEL, then on motion, the meeting adjourned.

MRS. REVELS AT GRANT'S TABLE— A SCENE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Mrs. Senator Revels, the wife of the distinguished "man and brother," arrived in Washington on the 17th ultimo, and was entertained the next day at a state dinner party by General Grant. Gen. Butler, Gen. Schenck, Gen. Garfield, and other military imbeciles of note accompanied by their wives and daughters, were among the company. Mrs. Revels passed from the drawing room to the dining room on the arm of Senator Sumner, and occupied a seat at the table between that gentleman and the President. Her conversation charmed the company even more than her appearance, although the refined and instinctive taste and dress in which the ladies of Guinea are distinguished was sweetly apparent in the decoration of her person. A turban of mild scarlet with yellow border—a crimson moire antique with blue and green flounces, and buttons of dainty brass—red slippers with white rosetts—with a massive necklace of barbaric pearls—half a dozen breast pins of curious workmanship—a few neat rings and a gilt belt united to form a toilette in which purity and simplicity were exquisitely united. Mrs. Revels partook freely of the Executive nourishment, and avowed her satisfaction over the cookery at almost every bite with a frankness quite refreshing in the saloons of the State. "See heah," she remarked, as she passed her plate for another cut of ham, "of all dem dishes guv me the hog and hominy—Golly but dat's a sweet piece of bacon. Yah! Yah! it reminds me of possum fat. Dese is good cookins, Hiram." This last observation was, of course, addressed to the partner of her bosom. There was a general feeling at the table that the "Court Circles" had received in this estimable matron a remarkable addition. On her departure at the close of the entertainment, General Grant, with his wonted urbanity, remarked that he would like to see more of her, "to which Mrs. Revels, with uncommon tact replied: 'Yah! Yah! Can't see no more of me dis time, but I'se gittin low-necked dresses. Dis yeah high one was made down Souf."

The Great Fire at Henderson.

HENDERSON, N. C. May 17, 1870.

The beautiful and enterprising town of Henderson is in ashes. This morning at 3 o'clock the alarm of fire called out citizens from their morning slumbers, to which dread call, everybody responded with the readiness born of fear and concern. The fire was first seen at the store recently occupied by Dr. T. C. Debnam, but for two months closed up. It soon spread from house to house until the whole block from J. H. Lassiter's store to Barnard's store was a lurid sheet of flame. The spectators, embracing the larger part of our population, were paralyzed with terror, knowing well that the contiguity of the houses and the insufficiency of means, or more properly, total want of means, to extinguish fire were bound to give over the devoted town into the hands of the fire king, unless some unforeseen agency should work out its salvation as it were by a miracle. Therefore greater exertions were made to save the goods in the stores and furniture in private residences, than to save the buildings themselves. From the first there was little hope that any of the business part of the place would be saved from the devouring element. Some efforts were made, however, to save Mr. Wyche's store, the house just on the opposite corner to Barnard's, but both this and Mr. Kittle's were very soon burned down. Unfortunately Mr. W. did not save many of his goods. His neighbor, Mr. Kittle, was more fortunate, saving nearly his entire stock. All this while the wind was varying from Northeast to Southwest, and the flames were rapidly communicated from the North to the South side of Garnett street. Within the space of an hour and a quarter the whole business portion of the place, embracing some thirty-five buildings, was on fire. The excitement on the street may be imagined; it cannot be described. Shouts of encouragement, orders of merchants and others, who were moving out goods and chattels from the jaws of conflagration, the terror-stricken aspect of the ladies and children, who, however, were less excited than is usual on such occasions, and the weird, awful figure of the flames as they shot high up into the air, were sufficient to stamp the scene as one of appalling interest. The greater part of the goods in most of the stores were saved. Finally, after burning down the most western business blocks on both sides of the street, the fire spent its fury, or rather, by a combination of fortuitous circumstances the nearest residences were saved.

Heroic exertions in the spreading on and wetting of blankets by copious streams of water drawn from the various wells and carried in buckets, together with a sudden shifting of the wind, secured the safety of Mrs. Reavis's and Capt. I. J. Young's dwellings.

The freedmen distinguished themselves. Among the whites who were most active, I shall mention particularly Mr. Charles J. Horne, a young Englishman, whose heroic efforts in rescuing Capt. Young's house from the flames, and other praiseworthy actions on this memorable moring, entitle him to the everlasting gratitude of our afflicted people. Other gentlemen equally prominent, were Capt. A. F. Spencer, and Messrs. Hal. Fetter and James Lamond. We would not discriminate where all did their duty to the best of their ability.

The following is as accurate a list of the losses as we are able to procure this evening:

Lewis H. Kittle, merchant, amount of goods lost not known; store house and shop estimated at $1,800. J. H. Davis, the store building occupied by B. G. Clarke, P. W. Wyche, Agent, about $1,500. B. G. Clarke, nearly whole stock of goods, at a rough estimate $4,000. ~~Barnard $400 to $500,~~ insurance covering $750 of entire stock.—Post Office and residence of Mrs V. C. McCraw, P. M. $1,500. Watkins' store building, occupied by J. R. Barnard $2,500, insured fully. Hardy Harris nearly entire stock destroyed, approximated at $500.—Jno. W. Barnes' store building (Debnam stand) $800. Dr. J. C. Debnam $3,000.—J. B. Debnam, $500. W. H. Hughes $1,000 to $1,200. Mrs. A. H. Alley, Henderson Hotel, residence and other buildings, $8,000. Burwell & Parham, merchants, $25,000, insured for $15,000. Cicero W. Harris, editor and publisher of the Henderson Index, the whole types, fixtures, books, etc., of the office at a low estimate $1,500.—W. Hamilton Young, attorney at law, law library, papers, etc., $1,000. R. Lassiter, Son & Co., store house, dwelling and goods, $3,000, insured fully. James H. Lassiter, goods, about $2,500 to $3,000. J. G. Saunders, goods, roughly estimated at from $300 to $400. Ed Farnach, bookseller and jeweller, unable to give an estimate correctly, insured above amount of loss. Green & Barnett, tailors, slight. A. W. Rowland, druggist, $1,000. W. C. Harris, $400 to $500. Dr. W. W. Young, store house, occupied by W. C. Harris, $600. D E Young, nine buildings and goods, $10,000, half insured. J. E. Clarke, store and bar, $4,500 to $5,000. John W. Vaughan, two buildings and goods, $1,500 to $2,000, insured for $1,000. W. H. Harris, $200 to $300. C. Ledbetter, $500. Besides these there are other sufferers for smaller sums, estimates of which are not in my possession. The total approximated loss is $80,000. Sad figures to pen, sad, sad, indeed is our condition. The large business men may be able to bear up under this dreadful dispensation, but how is it with the widows and orphans who have lost their all in this terrible conflagration? Impoverished as our country is, I believe I may speak for the generous people of our dear Old North State and pledge them to assist and help the widows and orphans who have been burned out of house and home.

I forgot to state, in the right place, that the fire was the work of an incendiary.—The building whence it proceeded was an old store, unocupied for several months. There were about $500 worth of goods in it at the time, and it is supposed that the building was first entered and robbed and then fired, and the intention of the parties was to profit by the general confusion to steal goods from other merchants.

It was never my painful duty, as a member of the Press, to chronicle a more widespread and disastrous conflagration. Nearly forty buildings destroyed in the grey of one single morning! The whole business part of a flourishing village laid in ruins by the hands of a dastardly and murderous incendiary! But our people, though sensibly affected by the awful stroke, are cheerfully bearing up under it, and in the May stillness of this delightful evening, as I write for them, this tale of woe, comes to my ear the clangor of saw and hammer, sounds significant of preparations of places of business improvised out of sheds, dwelling houses, tobacco factories and whatever other buildings may be made to answer the purpose.

Publish these facts and reflections, and, by so doing, oblige, among many others,

Yours very respectfully,

CICERO W. HARRIS.

Our townsman, Mr. George W. Griswold has shipped upwards of one thousand quarts of strawberries this season.—Goldsboro Messenger.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Democrats and Conservatives of this city, at the Court House, on Saturday evening next, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the District Convention, which will shortly be held at Franklinton.

Dwelling House for Rent,—terms moderate and the opportunity a good one for any one who may desire a comfortable residence—apply for information at this office.

Rock Fish Muddle is the order of the day at Pepper & O'Connor's, now.

Municipal Trial.—We published the fact at the time, that during the Radical Convention here, Galoway, a delegate from New Hanover, was arrested for creating a disturbance on the streets, and that in consequence of some demonstrations for a rescue, Chick Haywood, a policeman, knocked down a fellow named Rourke, from Wilmington, with his "billy."

In consequence of matters connected with this arrest, it seems Bryan Lunn, Assistant Chief of Police, has gotten up a petition to have George Scales, Chief of Police, and four Policemen, Chick Haywood, Simon Craven, Robert Crossan and Sampson Anderson, dismissed from the service.

An examination of the affair was commenced before Mayor Harrison yesterday, and a number of witnesses were examined in regard to the conduct of the Chief of Police and his Assistants on the occasion alluded to. It is not our purpose to speak of the facts now, as the examination will be continued to-morrow; but we will say that, so far as the evidence went, to day, it showed that the Police acted with much prudence and courage, so much so, as to prevent, perhaps, a very serious riot.

We will go more fully into the facts when the examination is concluded.

Local still in Luck—Having had our garden rake stolen, some time since, and the fact coming to the knowledge of our esteemed friend, Julius Lewis, Esq., the large and popular Hardware dealer, at 44, Fayetteville street, he selected from his extensive assortment of garden and plantation tools, an elegant, light and strong cast-steel rake, and sent it to us, to supply the loss. In mentioning the fact, we will take occasion to say, that Mr. Lewis is thoroughly posted in his business, that he keeps a first class stock of goods, and that, with the assistance of our old friend, Jesse Brown, Esq., and our somewhat more juvenile friend, Nick West, will sell them on reasonable terms.

Where was It?—We have received a copy of some resolutions passed at a meeting somewhere, but it does not state where, nor who composed the meeting, nor anything by which we can locate. Editors know a great many things, but there are some things they can't even guess at, and the location of the meeting which passed these resolutions, is one of them.

Most Acceptable.—This morning our friend, B. J. Perkinson, sent us a lot of fine Oxheart or Wax cherries. They were delicious, and while we were enjoying them, invoked sundry and numerous blessings on Mr. Perkinson's kindness and consideration.

Mechanics Fire Company, No. 2, will meet at the Court House on to-morrow (Thursday) night, at 8 o'clock, by order of James B. Jordan, Foreman.

The Wilmington Journal of the 17th says, "yesterday and all day Sunday, a very large fire ranged through the woods west of this city."

Col. Frank—We published, last week, an account, from information derived from the Raleigh Standard, relative to Col. Frank Post Commandant at Raleigh, having caused his garrison flag to be lowered to half mast on Memorial Day. This was an error, and at the Standard's request, we so state it here. Col. Frank says that he is simply a soldier on duty and could not have lowered his flag unless ordered to do so.

We retract nothing, however, that we have said of Col. Frank. He is every inch a gentleman and a soldier, and this we are glad to say, notwithstanding we stood on opposite sides of the trenches during the war. We don't know what his political affiliations are, nor do we care. We only know that while Post Commandant of Wilmington he buried the feelings of a partisan in the duties of a soldier, and honestly strove to act impartially and with justice to all.—Wil. Journal.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.

Yesterday morning, in accordance with the published programme, the teachers and scholars of this Sunday School, assembled at the Methodist Church, at half past seven o'clock.

After a prayer by the Rev. Jonathan H. Dally, the procession was formed, under the direction of chief marshal, S. L. Riddle, headed by the Raleigh Brass Band and the banners of the school, and the line of march taken up for the depot.

On arriving at the depot a train of seven comfortable cars drawn by that elegant piece of machinery, "Calvin Graves," was in readiness to receive the excursionists. At half past eight o'clock, all the arrangements being perfected, the train moved off amid the plaudits of the crowd and sweet strains of music by the Band.

After a most pleasant run of nearly two hours, Hillsboro' was reached, where the visitors were received and cordially welcomed by the Methodist Sunday School of that place, headed by their Pastor, Rev. Mr. Crawford, and were conducted to a romantic and beautifully located spot in the "mountains." Here Rev. Mr. Crawford in a neat and appropriate speech bade the visitors welcome, and was responded to by S. L. Riddle, Esq., in behalf of the excursionists.

Speeches being over every body was at liberty to seek amusements most congenial to their fancies. Some paid a visit to "Panthers Den," "Lover's Leap," and other spots of interest near the locality, others passed their time reclining under the beautiful trees, enjoying the conversation of valued friends, and listening with charmed ears to the joyous shouts of the little ones.

Soon dinner was announced and all partook of a most generous repast. Everything was provided that could please the palate and tempt the appetite.

At 4 o'clock, (the hour decided upon for returning) all repaired to the train, and soon the journey homeward was commenced, and before sun down Raleigh was reached.

To the gentlemen connected with the Sunday School, who had the direction and charge of the excursion, a host of invited guests desire to return their thanks for a most pleasant day.

While our space is limited and though we have already overstepped our bounds, yet we cannot close this notice without remarking upon the polite and affable manner in which Conductor Waitt discharged his duty and the skill and close attention manifested by the engineer, Mr. Chas. Carroll.

The following affecting and affectionate letter, was written by Miss Dora Ingram, a native of this State, about four hours before her death, which sad event occurred in Paris, Tenn., where she had been sent to attend the Female College there, on the 16th of the past April. Her mother and a large number of friends in Anson, Richmond and other counties in this State, and some in this city, will read it with melancholy interest, and preserve it as a sacred memento of the "loved and lost" Dora:

"Paris, Tenn., April 16, 1870.

My Dear Sweet Ma:

I am dying—will probably be dead in a few moments—but 'ere I go, I must talk a little to the dear mother whom I love so dearly, and whom I have so longed to see. How bright have been the anticipations of the happy day when we would be reunited, and I have counted the weeks, and almost the hours, until June. But, dear mother, that time will never come for me. God calls me, and I must obey the summons.—Can you not feel as I do, that "He doeth all things well?" Do not grieve for me, Mother, darling, but think of me as being at peace. My physician did not consider me dangerously ill until yesterday, or I should have summoned you to my bedside that I might have had the satisfaction of seeing your dear face the last on earth. I know a mother's heart will say, "If I had been there, perhaps my child would not have died," but I wish to assure you that nothing could have been more tender and devoted than the nursing I have received during my illness; and even had I been at home with you, I could not have received more devoted care than has been constantly and unceasingly bestowed upon me by Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. King, Miss Lide, Dr. and Mrs. Caldwell, and Mrs. Glascock. I love them all better than any one on earth, except you and the others of my dear relatives, for they have been to me father, mother, brother and sisters, and I wish you to ever remember them for their love and kindness to me. This is the fourth day of my illness. I was taken with pneumonia, which terminated in congestion of the lungs. I know it will comfort your heart to have the assurance from me that I am perfectly resigned to death, and feel satisfied that I will be accepted at the Throne of Grace. I feel that I will meet you in Heaven, and that very shortly I shall join my dear father there. Do not grieve for me, darling Mother, and you, my dear sister, but think of me as only gone before, to await you in my new home. Think of me as not lost, but gone before. Dear little Helen, I wish I could see her once more, but God wills it otherwise, and I must submit to his His righteous decree. Tell her not to sorrow too deeply, but to meet me in Heaven.—Dear Johnny, too, he wished me so much to be present at his college commencement. Give him my love and farewell. Tell him to be diligent in his studies, and win himself an honorable name in his college and class. I have given directions about some little presents which I wish sent to you and Helen. I have dispatched to uncle Tommie to come, and I suppose he will be here directly. I must not close without speaking to you of Mr. Wood. Look upon him as my faithful teacher, and one of my best friends. He has been ever kind and considerate—not only anxious for my advancement in my studies, but also solicitous about my health. And now, dear mother, with a sweet, lingering kiss of love, I must bid my dear ones farewell, looking forward to the time of our blessed re-union, where partings are no more. These are my dying words; treasure them as such, for the memory of your loving daughter,

Dora.

The Krebs Lottery Case.—Judge Cantwell yesterday rendered his decision in regard to the Krebs lottery case, argued before him some two weeks ago. He found for the city under a penalty of $50 for the offence. The decision was based upon the alleged unconstitutionality of the Act of Legislature, incorporating the North Carolina Real & Personal Estate Agency. This will, we presume, settle the matter in the Special Court, but it will be remembered that the Grand Jury of the late term of the Superior Court for this county, found a true bill against Mr. Krebs, and that the case was continued until the next term.—Wil. Journal.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 17.—Revenue to-day $300,000.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations heard C. W. Field and W. C. Barney, regarding Cables, but took no definite action.

The funding bill was postponed for a week.

The Banking and Currency Committee this morning agreed to report a bill providing for $19,000,000 additional National Bank circulation and for the cancellation of $45,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds and $40,000,000 of greenbacks; and providing for a free banking system on a gold basis.

The House Naval Committee will report against the continuance of the 33 per cent additional to officers pay.

Among the petitions presented to-day, was one by Senator Abbott, from a North Carolina lady, who, after a careful reading of the oath cannot qualify as a P. M. She wants the Postmaster General to modify the oath, or Congress to relieve her from political disabilities.

In the House, during the discussion of the Lynch bill, regarding the decline of American commerce, Washburn of Wis., charged that the decline was owing to the hostility of Great Britain during the late war.

Root, of Arkansas, introduced a bill for the Southern Pacific Railroad, similar in all respects to that reported by Howard in the Senate. The bill was referred to the Committee on the Pacific Railroads.

The House then went into the Committee of the Whole on the Naval appropriation bill.

Senate.—Kellogg presented a bill granting lands to the Louisiana and Texas Railroad.

At 1 o'clock the bill to enforce the 15th amendment was taken up. The question recurred upon the motion of Mr. Ferry, to strike out that portion of Mr. Stewart's amendment, which provides for fines and imprisonment for persons holding office in violation of the 14th amendment.

Mr Ferry then took the floor and defended his position from the strictures of Mr. Morton, and claimed that he spoke for the Union men of the South, in advocating a general removal of political disabilities. He alluded to the platforms of the Republicans in several of the States and the utterances of Republican candidates in support of this. He said, in reference to the State of Georgia, which the Senator (Morton) was constantly holding up as a model State of crime and disorder, why was this? He was sure that if the destinies of Georgia had been in the hands of men of high patriotism, and not of men who had dragged the honor of the Republican party down to the dust, and whose only aim was their own pecuniary advancement, the state of affairs would have been very different. But he denied these stories, these telegrams manufactured to order and which were sent here to the Press of this city.

Mr. Ferry read from a letter of Thomas R. Joseph who, he said, was a well known and eminent merchant of New York, to the effect that he (Joseph) had traveled all over Georgia and saw nothing but an earnest desire to accept the situation and let "by-gones be by-gones," and characterizing as entirely false, the "Avery telegram" from Brunswick.

Turning to the North, Mr. Ferry claimed that in that section also, the majority of the Republican Press were in favor of the two bills for this purpose, which he had introduced.

He now asserted that to continue longer these disabilities was in violation of all the great principles of the Republican party.

He had been in favor of the rights of the black man, not because he was black, but because he was a man; and now that the rights of the black had been secured, he feared that the rights of man himself were in danger.

Your 15th amendment is a delusion and snare while these disabilities remain on your statute books. The black man is not enfranchised when he is not permitted to vote for at least one half of his friends and neighbors. He wanted these disabilities removed, not as a measure of conciliation, but as a measure of justice.

He asserted that the 14th amendment and the test oath were not designed as a measure of punishment, but as a measure of great public policy. Ireland tells the story to-day of the effect of disabilities and test oaths. Has five hundred years of this system raised up a loyal generation in Ireland? No Sir! What did Prussia do with her disabilities and her test oaths in Hungary? Were the fires of rebellion ever quenched by these means? No! But when a free constitution and a right to representation was granted, peace everywhere prevailed.

Morton in replying said that Ferry's was a Democratic speech and that he should take his seat on that side of the House. He said that Ferry's proposition was to sweep away all political disabilities and place rebels in power, and give them an opportunity to renew past mischief, without affording any protection to loyal men.

Sawyer eulogized Ferry's speech as sound Republican doctrine, and that to read that Senator out of the Republican party would require more than mere assertion and denunciation. He added that under the political disability scheme, two innocent suffered for one guilty. He added that a no more blundering scheme than the test oath could have been devised. In the South, under its operations, they were compelled to take incompetents and rascals as office holders.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the Brooklyn Life.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION
BURNING FLUID
THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!
No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the Right can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James H. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION
Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.
